NATIONAL SYSTEM STRENGTH - QS SAFE

Since 2008, QS has blended the ranking results with other country data to compile a ranking of higher education systems. It uses four indicators:

S SYSTEM
Indexed score based on the collective performance of institutions in the QS World University Rankings®

A ACCESS
Score based on the number of places at ranked universities factored against the size of the population

F FLAGSHIP
Score based on the position of the top performing university in the country in the QS World University Rankings®

E ECONOMIC
An index based on the number of ranked universities factored against economic strength (GDP per capita)

		2010	2011	2012	2013	2014
S	SCORE	62	56	55.7	46.6	42	23

FACULTY AREA PERFORMANCE

QS has produced results in these five faculty areas since 2004. Until 2012 they were based purely on academic reputation but from 2013 they were refined to embrace other indicators on a similar basis to our rankings in narrower fields. Read more on www.iu.qs.com.

SUMMARY

The QS World University Rankings® have been published since 2004. Whilst the headline measures have not changed since 2005, the methodology has undergone persistent refinement as reflected in the timeline and a number of other evaluations have, furthermore, been added to the QS portfolio over the past ten years.

2014 marks the celebration of ten years of the QS World University Rankings®. November will see the release of a retrospective book examining the evolution as well as the impact of the rankings over the past decade, and the journey travelled by some of the world's best institutions. Rankings have been part of a transformative period in international higher education and the next ten years promise to be no less dramatic.

A tenth anniversary retrospective on rankings and their impact on global higher education will be published in November

Whether or not you approve of our methodology or agree with our results, it is clear that rankings are becoming an increasingly influential factor in a diverse range of decisions - from students choosing a university, to institutions selecting partners, from governments setting immigration policy, to scholarship providers shortlisting applicants.

In 2013, over 1.1m distinct people visited topuniversities.com in the first week after launch, over 2.4m in the first month comprising over 12.5m page views. There is no denying the popularity and impact of rankings - the QS rankings in particular.

Inevitably, there will always be ups and downs in a ranking and we recognise that universities cannot be fully summed up by a single number - which is exactly why QS has evolved a broader range of evaluations designed to highlight excellence in different aspects and contexts. QSIU is always seeking new ideas for further development.

UNDERSTANDING THIS COUNTRY REPORT

Data from multiple sources has gone into creating this country report:

1. World Bank indicators have been selected which have a bearing on higher education
2. Where available OECD data on the migration of students has been included for the top five origin and destination countries
3. The QS World University Rankings(R) have been sliced and diced to give an indication of the collective strength of universities
4. QS SAFE measures are featured to look at the actual vs. expected system strength

Hopefully in the main, the report is self-explanatory, the objective has been clear visuals and a concise tone, but if there are unanswered questions or clarifications, ideas for refinements or you need reproducible graphics, please get in touch and we'll see what we can do.

ABOUT QSIU

The QS Intelligence Unit (QSIU) was formed in 2008 from the team that had been operating the QS World University Rankings® since 2004. The team now comprises more than 20 people from 15 countries people and. In addition to these rankings, by the end of 2014, QSIU will have published five regional rankings, discipline level rankings in 30 separate subjects, city rankings and various MBA rankings.

Through this experience, QSIU has become a leading authority on performance evaluation, management and improvement in higher education and, perhaps, the foremost independent market intelligence compiler dedicated exclusively to international higher education.

As a private company, our work attracts particular scrutiny and since our business is entirely dependent on the continued good will of higher education institutions and the trust of key stakeholders, in particular students from all over the world, we relentelessly work on building our reputation by living our values. Integrity, independence and transparency are the principles that guide and inspire our work, coupled with a passion for higher education and the constant urge to produce innovative and useful intelligence. The compilation of rankings is, and must remain, independent from everything else the company does. To this end, the QS Intelligence Unit was the first, and remains the only, compiler of global university rankings to open its practices to external scrutiny and is proud to have had a number of it's rankings "IREG Approved" as of May 2013.
